

Wellesley. Mass
Oct. 23-1890.

My dear Mrs. Gray,

Your proposed visit next Tuesday, with your friend Mrs. Perkins, gives us exceeding pleasure. And you may be sure of a cordial welcome. I only hope that the day will be favorable, and that Wellesley will be as beautiful in its brilliant foliage as it is today —

I enclose a time table. We hope you will make a long day with us - and should be glad to have you come early and stay late. But I have marked the 10 o'clock from Boston as perhaps the most-convenient for you. A Park Square car would take you to the Providence Station. And from there you could easily connect with another going up Columbus Avenue to the Albany Station - or you could, if you prefer, go to the Albany Depot for the train. Arriving in Wellesley. (do not get off at Wellesley Hills.) please enquire for Mr. Bigelow's Carriage which will be easier to ride in, than the College Coach - and I will see that he is in waiting for you. Let him drive you to "Stone Hall", and you will find Miss Corley and myself.

Should the weather not prove favorable Tuesday, may we not expect you Wednesday? -

Very cordially yours,

Susan M. Hallenale.

Kind greetings to Mr. Perkins -
